Elliot:

Here is paragraph #5 from your statement of client's rights:

5. You are entitled to have your questions and concerns addressed promptly and to receive a prompt reply to your letters, telephone calls, emails, faxes and other communications.

I don't feel like you are fulfilling this obligation. I called you last week and today asking to talk, I have gotten no response. You haven't returned emails. I am concerned.

Furthermore, it seemed to me that ML filed their motion in part because you did not follow up after your letter to the judge to preempt that motion. I don't practice in New York, but I guess I don't understand the delays.

So when can we talk?
